When can I visit?

- Everyday 8:30 – 18:30, hours extended until 21:00 on Fridays and Saturdays.
- Closed every Monday after 13:00.

Do I need to purchase a ticket?

- No, The Children’s Gallery is FREE.

Do I fit the age limit?

- Children ages 5-12 are welcome to visit with their family.
- Children must enter with their parents or teachers.

Do I need to make a reservation?

- Groups with less than 10 people are welcome to visit within the gallery hours.
- Groups with more than 10 people must make a reservation with the gallery 7 days prior to visiting.

What can I do in the Children’s Gallery?

- Think, observe, work, share, and learn!

- Write down what you would like to share with everyone!

---

Let’s Open! Emperor Qianlong’s Treasure Box!

Hi! Welcome to the National Palace Museum’s Children’s Gallery! Here, we have exciting displays, interesting films, and many interactive games to help you learn about Emperor Qianlong’s and his family’s treasures! Let’s go and have fun!
1. Exploring the Life of Ancient Literati
   What do ancient literati do in their free time? Let's experience together!

2. Orientation Theater
   When Muay and the NPM treasures meet on a train, what kind of a fantastic journey would they go on?

3. 3D Illusion Exploration Area
   Pose with the 3D painting and take pictures. Let's play in the clouds with the NPM treasures!

4. The Secret of Jade
   In the ancient times, people didn't have modern technology. How did they create such beautiful jade pieces? Let's find out together.

5. Searching the Painting “Along the River During the Qingming Festival”
   Think about it! In the painting “Along the River During the Qingming Festival”, do you notice any similarities between life of the present and the past?

6. Fun Chinese Characters
   From primitive shapes to artful lines, how have the Chinese character evolved? Let's take a look!

Create my own spinning bottle!

Draw your own design on the bottle here!